"Crossing to align" conference

Change is part of our lives. Sometimes we choose it, sometimes it imposes itself - and often it destabilises us.

We try to move faster, avoid discomfort, or go back to the way things were before.

What if these moments were not problems to be solved, but passages to be crossed?

In this talk, Solange Champion invites you to change the way you look at these periods of transition.

Not as ruptures, but as opportunities to realign yourself, make better choices, and rediscover clarity.

Because when it comes down to it, it's not the change that transforms us... it's the way we go through it.

DJ Set N'Zeng

Apéro Concert - Dj Set N'Zeng

Aperitif 6.30pm - 7.30pm and 10pm

N'ZENG performs in hybrid mode, between DJ set and live trumpet, with the machines leaving room for his breath.

A former member of Le Peuple de l'Herbe, he has collaborated on a wide range of hip-hop, electro and orchestral projects (L'Entourloop, Gorillaz, Rone).

Most recently, he wrote the trumpet, flugelhorn and brass arrangements for Degiheugi's Endless Smile 2.

He is also developing a more personal sound with an EP in collaboration with Charlotte Savary, a mix of airy strings and cinematic writing.

In DJ sets, he blurs the lines between selection and instrumental playing, with the trumpet slipping into the mix without warning.

Water Day, a common good to be shared between generations

With its 17 km of coastline and estuary, its dunes, its market gardens and its forest, all the result of a previous climatic upheaval four centuries ago, Santec has a unique way of illustrating how it will be exposed to the challenges of the coming decades.

Around the theme of water and in the dune setting of the state forest, the Friends of the Littoral Santécois are offering a series of events accessible to all, putting these challenges into historical perspective.

Storytellers, scientists, forestry technicians, historians and walkers along the tiny paths of Santec will all be united by their passion for this strong and fragile area, and will talk to us about history, today's realities and eternal legends. There's something for youngsters too, with games, exhibitions and educational and fun activities.

The water carrier / tales and legends

Storytelling walk to the Brenn Heskenn washhouse with Patricia Sanchez.

Let's listen to the voice of a washerwoman, hard at work and who loves to tell stories as she works by the fountain. Let's follow her daughter, the young water carrier, with her pierced jar that empties on one side of the path so that the flowers can be born. And many other characters.

Fantastic tales, marvellous tales, tales of wisdom or mischief, a walk to talk about our relationship with water and take a walk together.

SAINT-POL-DE-LÉON

Meeting and signing session with Eric Senabre

We'll be talking about his children's novel "Le samouraï et le mousquetaire", published by Didier Jeunesse.

Brittany, 17th century. Thirteen-year-old César is determined to assume his role as heir and restore the prestige of the family estate. To do this, he has a well-laid plan: travel to Paris, join the academy of musketeers and perform feats of arms. On his quest, César crosses paths with a samurai on a mission, a long way from his native Japan, with whom he makes friends. But things get complicated when he learns that his cousin, himself a king's musketeer, is in trouble. Is it not the duty of an apprentice musketeer to help his fellow man?

Conference "A look at an artistic masterpiece" - "Olympia"

Starting with an emblematic work by a great artist, Christine de Langle proposes to introduce visitors to artistic masterpieces and provide keys to understanding the artists, their environment and their major works.

Talk followed by a discussion. Manet, Olympia. A scandal at the 1865 Salon, Olympia reinforced Manet's sulphurous reputation. What was his aim? Is it possible to paint a reality that many wish to conceal, while at the same time claiming to be one of the great masters of the past?

Tuesday is free!

Every third Tuesday of the month, a film is shown on the big screen in the multimedia section: French SF animated film from 2023:

In the year 2200, in Noctis, capital of the planet Mars. An experienced private detective, Aline Ruby, has just returned from a trip to Earth where she has just completed a mission for a wealthy businessman. She learns that a cybernetics student has been missing for several days. Accompanied by Carlos Rivera, a humanoid robot who assists her in her investigations, the young woman immediately sets off in search of the student, convinced that she will soon be able to find her whereabouts in a city she thinks she knows perfectly well. Aline soon discovers, however, that the investigation is much more complex than she expected...

Handi-Créathon

Join us for a creative event dedicated to disability and independence!

Open to all, registration required (link to the form opposite or via the QR code). A 3-day team event to imagine and co-create technical aids to make everyday life easier for people living with a disability or losing their independence.

Themes and project ideas :

- School: devices to promote inclusion in the school environment

- Rehabilitation: intensive motor therapy kits, motor simulations, etc.

- Video games: joysticks for people with hemiplegia

- Boating: seats and adaptations for wheelchairs, sand yachts, canoes and boats

- Meal aids: weighted cutlery, plate edges, devices for eating more slowly

How does it work?

1. Choose a theme (or suggest another).

2. With your team, come up with practical, useful solutions.

3. Prototype the solution(s).

4. Experience unique collective moments.

Your creations will be used to equip the Breizh FabriBus (a travelling Fablab) to design complex, made-to-measure technical aids in just a few hours.

PLOUESCAT — Refuge.s

Free admission during library opening hours.
Exhibition by Géraldine Guérin.
"Géraldine Guérin is a visual artist whose research is rooted in the heart of plant life. Her eye is in turn that of the ethnobotanist, the herbalist, the painter, the engraver, the sculptor and the child.
She has developed a broad palette of artistic expression that enables her to explore the complexity of this kingdom and its interactions with the rest of the living world. Géraldine devotes an important part of her life to passing on her knowledge and poetically connecting people with the world around them. Géraldine Guérin narrated by Anne Da Silva.
Refuge.s is an exhibition that traces the contours of a poetic observation of the indigenous plant world, or of the distant world.

Through Tataki zomé's wall hangings, ceramic installations, illustrations and other curiosities, Refuge.s invites the viewer to discover the forms of living things and their poetry. It's an exhibition that welcomes the multi-faceted world that makes us up.

SAINT-POL-DE-LÉON — Effelec exhibition

François Laumonnier, who has been painting full time for many years and shows his work under the artist name Effelec, is presented canvases inspired by some of the photos of the writer James Joyce at the Shakespeare bookshop on the quayside in Paris. The characters quickly gave way to the books, which became the painter's motif.

Effelec also showed part of his "Hopper exhibition" series, in which the works of the American artist were contemplated by visitors, some of whom were none other than the characters who had descended from the canvases.

LANDIVISIAU — Exhibition: the song of painting

Exhibition of paintings and engravings.

Thierry LE SAËC is a painter, engraver and publisher of artists' books. For over 30 years, painting and poetry have been closely linked in his work. For this summer's exhibition, the artist is taking over the Espace Lucien-Prigent with works that are often previously unseen, inspired by notions of landscape and an affirmation of colour and light. Very large-format works stand side by side with more intimate works, in which, each time, the gesture prevails.
Free admission Mondays,
Wednesdays, Fridays, Saturdays
and Sundays, 2pm to 5.30pm.

GUIMILIAU — YS" exhibition by Benjamin Deroche

This double exhibition presents original works (photographic prints, oils on canvas) by Benjamin Deroche at the Centre d'interprétation - Les enclos in Guimiliau, as well as reproductions that can be seen in the photographic itinerary around the communes of the Landivisiau region.
Benjamin Deroche explores the Celtic legend of the town of Ys and uses it as the focal point of a photographic creation.
Drawing on a number of sources
from the legend, including Émile

Souvestre's Foyer Breton, Théodore de la Villamarqué's Barzaz Breiz and Charles Guyot's novel adaptation, Benjamin Deroche has produced an enchanting photographic series.
From Douarnenez to the beaches of Sainte-Anne-la-Palud and Kervel, via Locronan, the Névet forest, Quimper, Le Huelgoat and Landévennec, the photographer has conducted an investigation.
The result is a kaleidoscopic work that recreates the magic he projected onto the territory he travelled through.

To create a magical fiction, the photographer uses a whole range of techniques, combining oil paint, medium format and old digital SLRs, Polaroids and Portra 400 film. This combination of colour and black-and-white images, precision of detail and magnificent blurred images, landscapes and faces, silver and oil paint, gives rise to a 'magical realism'.

Philippe Le Guillou is the author of the text recreating the legend.
The exhibition at the Centre d'interprétation - Les enclos features extracts from his texts.
The "YS" project devised by Benjamin Deroche and Emmanuelle Hascoët was created as part of a residency at the Port-musée de Douarnenez in 2022 and was piloted by Fovearts. The project was adapted for the Kiosque in Vannes in 2025 before being presented in the Landivisiau region in 2026.

SAINT-VOUGAY — Exhibition: "A lifetime of drawing" by Patrice Pellerin

The exhibition highlights 29 drawings by Patrice Pellerin, the famous comic strip artist.
It brings together his earliest drawings, produced in the late 1970s and 1980s.

Before gaining recognition as a comic strip artist, he devoted himself to illustrating novels and history textbooks. Driven by a deep concern for accuracy, he based his work on in-depth historical research.

His drawing table becomes a veritable time machine!

The tour ends with the L'Épervier series, for which he is responsible for the script, drawings and colouring.

Visitors can discover some of the plates in which he depicts the Château de Kerjean with remarkable meticulousness.

Opening times :

- From 11 April to 3 July
Wednesday to Sunday, 2pm to 6pm

SIBIRIL

Exhibition: Pablo Picasso - Destins croisés

Following the huge success of its 1st exhibition on Leonardo da Vinci in 2025, this year Château de Kerouzeré welcomes one of the 20th century's greatest artists: Pablo Picasso. This exhibition focuses on a little-known facet of the artist: the creative spirit surrounding graphic arts, ceramics, photography and text illustration. Come and discover this exceptional exhibition of original works by the artist. You'll also find works by Joan Miro, Salvador Dali and Dora Maar.

The exhibition programme:

- Nearly 80 works by Pablo Picasso, scattered around the main rooms of the Château.

- An original exhibition showing a little-known Picasso: the ceramist, illustrator, engraver, lithographer, etc.

- Nearly 30 original ceramics made in the Madoura workshop in Vallauris: from plates to exceptional vases

This will be the first time the exhibition has been presented in Brittany, after stints in Italy, Turkey, Belgium and Luxembourg. An experience accessible to schoolchildren, with two educational packs (primary and secondary). The works are organised around 6 main themes: creative genius, Spain, women, ceramics, graphic arts and photography!

An unforgettable experience presented along the classic tour route of the Château de Kerouzeré, a new must-see destination in North Finistère.

Workshop: Spring Body

A morning to slow down, to listen, to welcome... To honour what is emerging, to free what needs to be transformed,

And let a new momentum be born.

Through gentle yoga, free and guided movement, with or without Rebozo fabrics. We will awaken the body and the senses, opening up living, intuitive spaces. A poetic and colourful ritual will support this journey, where body painting becomes an expression, a celebration of the living within. A time to reconnect with your deepest nature, your creativity and the gentle power of the feminine.

Course limited to 7 participants.
