Yan' Dargent painted the landscapes of his native Léon as well as those of the Crozon Peninsula. He depicted the legends of his childhood, notably 'Les Lavandières de la nuit' (The Night Washerwomen), his most famous painting. He decorated numerous churches. Finally, he was a prolific illustrator.In 2026, the museum invites visitors to meet "Yan' Dargent at home, in Léon". The exhibition brings him back to life in his native region and the world he lived in, through his landscapes, his era and his social circles (works, period costumes and old postcards). In addition, a temporary exhibition of contemporary artists: Alain Le Nost, painter, and Roger Moizan, photographer.Free guided tours (donations welcome).
